Council Holds Out For Appointment To Fill Vacancy

With deadline to appoint a fifth city councilman only a few days away, majority of the council still holds hope that the vacancy will be filled by appointment rather than a special election.

A poll of the four councilmen showed the appointment method holding a 3-1 edge.

Only Councilman Sanford Vickers felt that the decision should be made by the electorate. "It's the only democratic way," he said. "I don't see how we can make the choice."

Mayor Joseph Verducci took just the opposite stand, arguing, "I feel it would hurt everyone concerned if it went to a special vote," emphasizing the estimated cost of $4000.

'Our Fault'

The mayor held that, "It's the fault of our council if we are unable to have a meeting of the minds." Verducci said that an election would take too long. "Some important issue might be deadlocked 2-2 if we wait for an election." His opinion was that despite the nearly one month of fruitless negotiations, the council would still be able to agree on a compromise selection by the time the special meeting is held next Wednesday.

Councilman Micheal De Bernardi was opposed to holding a special election, also because of the cost factor. He was optimistic that the council would be able to make the appointment.

While Councilman Del Wilson indicated the issue might have to go to election because of the apparent council deadlock, he preferred the appointive method.

Must Be Westlake

Wilson said, however, that he would absolutely not approve any candidate from eastern Daly City. "I definitely feel we must have somebody from Westlake because the appointment is a replacement for Paul Hupf," who lives in Westlake.

Wilson also emphasized that he would "not go for anybody who has made any commitments. One person wants the mayoralty, another wants to get Stites (city manager Howard). Anybody that's made commitments to another councilman is not going to be responsible to the people."

The council will meet in an adjourned session next Wednesday in an attempt to make the appointment. If the choice is not made by October 14, 30 days after Hupf's resignation, the decision must be made at a special election under state law.

The appointee will fill out Hupf's unexpired term of 2½ years.

Callan Home In Time For Grand Jury Probe

Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr. of Colma returned this week from a three months tour of Europe, just in time to appear before the superior court judge next week with five other county officials to answer charges of "willful misconduct in office."

All five supervisors and county manager E. R. Stallings were named in an accusation by the county grand jury charging them with "willful misconduct" in failing to properly supervise expenditure of some $725,000 in road funds over a several year period.

Callan was believed to have cut short his tour of Europe after the recent grand jury probe started.

The six officials will answer the accusation in Judge Louis B. Dematteis court Friday, October 11.

Their attorney, Gerard Wagstaffe, is expected to make a motion to quash the charges.

District Attorney Keith Sorenson, who is to prosecute the case for the grand jury, has already admitted publicly that

Supervisor Thomas Callan said today that as far as he was concerned he wasn't going to appear before the grand jury until they asked him to and he didn't intend to appear in superior court next Friday because he hadn't been subpoenaed.

But District Attorney Keith Sorenson said Callan was named in the accusation of "willful misconduct" and would be served with his subpoena late this week or early next.

Callan said he had never been notified of the charges and only learned about them through reading the newspapers. "The county manager knew where I was all during my trip but nobody told me about this."

Callan admitted that he had cut his European trip short by three months to return here when learning of the grand jury probe.

He had planned to attend the World Series this week.

any motion to quash the accusation would "automatically" throw out the case. Sorenson has held that there is insufficient evidence to support the "willful misconduct" charge, which, if upheld in court, would result in removal of the offi-

SUPERVISORS GET 'RETRIBUTION' AGAINST JURY

San Mateo county grand jury continued their all-inclusive probe of county government this week, but supervisors got some small measure of retribution Tuesday when they heard of a "discrepancy" in the jury's budget.

The jurors called in county fire warden Ernest Werder Monday to determine if the county had not been paying too high a price for fire protection in unincorporated areas, when the state forestry service apparently offers the service for a reduced rate.

Werder was not officially censured. The inquiry group merely wanted to determine if

New Political Group Girds For Next April

A dozen businessmen and former councilmen gathered Tuesday to "mend old political fences" and begin mapping campaign strategy for the April, 1958, city council election.

One former councilman attending the meeting termed it a "dis-connected" session, but the apparent purpose seemed to be to rally together political forces to select one, two or three strong candidates for the forthcoming municipal election.

No candidates were mentioned at the meeting and one representative said that tone of the meeting was for the "general betterment of Daly City." Also prominently discussed was City Manager Howard Stites. And the roster of those present showed names of many who have been in conflict with the manager at one time or another.

Attending the "trial balloon" meeting were: Dan Dolan, builder; Mel Battye, insurance man and ex-councilman; Arthur Bodien, former city councilman and water department head; Jack Fahey, attorney; Paul Green, Tony Gaggero, former councilmen; Tom Tromborg, plumber and member of the planning commission; George Kirchhubel, tavern owner; Peter Becker, electrician and unsuccessful candidate for council in 1956; Joe Lewkowitz, school trustee and another defeated council candidate; Dan Andersen, former city administrator; and Ray Charette, owner of a blind and shade business.

A spokesman said, "We set no definite goal, but we're going to meet again October 15 to establish our aims. Actually this meeting was just a get-together."

The group as yet has no name and is not headed by any one particular person.

FEDERAL FUNDS APPROVED FOR DC MASTER PLAN

Senator Thomas Kuchel revealed in a wire to THE RECORD today that a federal appropriation of about $12,000 had been made available to Daly City for preparation of a long-range land-use plan.

Daly City is one of 12 California communities which will share in a $57,800 grant to assist in preparing development plans, said Warren B. Francis, executive secretary to Kuchel.

The funds, contributed on a matching basis with the cities, will go towards surveying and planning for anticipated growth to facilitate land use, zoning, public utilities, recreation facilities, schools, traffic systems, etc., according to Kuchel's message.

Locally, the project is to be undertaken by the planning consultant firm of Hahn, Wise & Associates. Daly City has budgeted $6460 as its share in this fiscal year and about $6000 for 1958-59. The state, which distributes the funds for the federal government, has already approved the Daly City project and the consultant firm is scheduled to start work as soon as the city council receives written confirmation, according to City Manager Howard Stites.

Hahn & Wise will develop a master plan which will designate future land use programs through 1980. In addition to municipal facilities, the long-range study will designate certain areas for commercial development.

In analyzing future needs, the planning firm will attempt to forsee the community's growth in the next 30 years and include outlying unincorporated areas in the master plan.

$1 MILLION GRADING DEAL HINTS BUILDING 'BOOM'

JEFFERSON Elementary school district has six north San Mateo county children enrolled in its Resource Class For The Blind at Woodrow Wilson school. Special instructor Mrs. Hortense Sundman works with these youngsters a couple of hours each day. The rest of the time the sightless students are in regular classes with other children. This integrated program is working out extremely well, according to the teachers. Three of the blind pupils are from San Bruno, the others are from Burlingame, South San Francisco and Daly City.

New Doelger Unit Of 1500 Homes Starts

Henry Doelger Builder Inc. this week signed a $1 million contract with contractor Arthur Haskins Inc. for grading on the 1500-home Westlake Unit 10.

The million-dollar deal gave substance to reports that Daly City is again experiencing a building "boom" not enjoyed for nearly 20 months.

A spokesman for the Doelger firm said Haskins would begin the earth moving project "immediately" for Unit 10, which is situated east of Skyline boulevard, south of the present Westlake development.

Unit 10 is the last major tract in the Westlake development.

Actual construction of the homes is scheduled for June, 1958, the spokesman said.

'Medium Price'

The dwellings will be in the "medium price" field.

Figures obtained from the building inspectors office for the month of September showed that total valuation of building hit $1,149,838, highest since February, 1956.

Number of new single family dwelling units was 85, primarily in the Westlake area. This was more than four times the total permits taken out for home construction in August.

The Doelger firm sold 107 homes last month, a figure not equalled for more than a year. They are now reported building new homes at the rate of five per working day, more than double the output during the summer months when building was just beginning to rally here from the early 1957 slump.

The October Daly City building total was on 108 permits and topped all activity during the last two years with the exception of the February, 1956 figure, apporximately $2 million.

Double Previous Year

The 108 permits was nearly double the total for September, 1956, which numbered 56.

Breakdown of last month's permits showed: new dwellings, 85, $671,808; home alterations, 15, $20,800; apartment alteration, 1, $500; commercial, 3, $380,250; commercial alteration, 1, $95; church, 1, $75,000; signs, 2, $585.

The boom in Westlake homes sales is believed to have had a direct effect on accelerating the pace of building, making available more cash to pay for labor and material. The sale of 107 homes in September grossed approximately $1½ million, which presumably helped swing the million-dollar transaction with the grading contractor.

With the Doelger firm increasing its sales and construction activity and the 1600-home St. Francis Heights Subdivision only a few months away from launching, Daly City is expected to wind up 1957 with one of its top building years and 1958 may come close to the record years in the early 1950s.

Pershing 'Showdown' Set For LA

The State Allocations Board next Monday will have "the final say" on San Francisco's protest against Jefferson Elementary school district in the feud over three acres of the proposed General Pershing school site.

Supt. H. Z. Weibel of the JESD will journey to Los Angeles for Monday's showdown. The first formal SF protest fell flat as the Allocations Board deadlocked 3-3. This upheld the board's earlier decision to approve the full 10 acres and grant the JESD funds for purchase of the land.

Weibel said that his latest trip Tuesday to Sacramento to talk with the state officials failed to produce any indication that SF would change its stand.

Daly City district's "rush" for the land has been delayed by the SF uproar. John Peirce, state director of finance, added to the confusion with a statement two weeks ago that "unless an agreement can be worked out with San Francisco, we cannot release funds for the site."

SF's protest is based on the loss of tax revenue from the homes on the three acres in SF County sought by the Daly City district for playground area of the 10 acre school.

The homes on the SF side are located on unimproved property and the three-acre penetration involves mostly little-used backyards, Weibel maintains.

According to Asst. Supt. David Shapiro, all but two of the SF homeowners involved are readey to negotiate with the JESD. One of the SF residents this week sent a letter to the state backing the JESD move because "San Francisco has done nothing for us for several years in the way of services

'ONE' SCHOOL DISTRICT PROPOSED BY CITIZENS

A motion asking that a survey be made on unification of the Jefferson Elementary and High School Districts was unanimously passed at the first fall meeting of the Citizens' Committee for Better Schools, held recently at Westlake school.

San Mateo county already has a committee appointed by Governor Goodwin Knight which will make a survey and recommendations on unification for any school district on petition of five or more residents of the district. The Citizens' Committee is drawing up such a petition.

It was reported that a good percentage of returns is being received on the teacher-turnover questionnaire mailed in August by the Citizens' Committee to former teachers in the Jefferson Elementary school district. A follow-up letter is being sent to all recipients of the original questionnaire asking that those who have not returned it do so as soon as possible so that the results may be tabulated.

Other matters discussed at the recent meeting included the possibility of setting up a committee project on the introduction of a foreign language in the elementary school curriculum, and the question of studying the library situation in the elementary and high schools.

Anyone interested in joining the Citizens' Committee for Better Schools is urged to contact Mrs. Berta Macklin, PL 5-4787. The committee is particularly anxious to have members who are interested in the public high schools, since this year they plan to cover a number of subjects involving both elementary and high school improvement.

New Rules Heard By DC Workers

Some 45 persons, mostly city employees, sat through a two-hour public hearing with the personnel board last Thursday as 17 pages of new civil service rules and regulations were carefully analyzed.

Representatives of the Daly City Municipal Employees Union and the Daly City Police and Firemen's association questioned the new rules item by item, but there were no major objections to the revised document.

Key points were the amount of accruable sick leave, selection of a person to be designated as "personnel clerk," anniversary dates for salary increase and a policy to be established in event a depression forced laying off a large number of employees.

12 Days Sick Leave

The new rules specify that annual sick leave of 12 days will be accruable up to 90 days over several years. Employees sought to have sick leave accruable up to 180 days.

The section dealing with personnel clerk was questioned. Fred Avilez, administrative assistant, now holds this title but the rules did not designate who would be authorized to fill this position.

Fireman Keith Schrock asked that anniversary date be

School Attendance Termed Normal After 'Dubious' Asian Flu Scare

Attendance was better than normal in Daly City's public schools this week as the "Asian flu" scare fizzled into nothingness.

Supt. Ed Morgan, high school district, said mid-week attendance at Jefferson and Westmoor was "exceptional." Last week some 90 students at Westmoor were missing because of flu.

In the Jefferson Elementary district, Mrs. Helen Delafield, health coordinator, reported that absences this week are about normal.

Flu Facts

Morgan, attending the San Mateo County School Superintendents Association meeting Wednesday in San Mateo, learned some interesting facts about the Asian flu from Dr. Harold Chope, county health department.

Chope told the superintendents that the Asian flu scare is being a bit "over-played' by parents. "Too many people are anxious to call any ailment the Asian flu," he remarked.

Chope said that only by systematic laboratory tests—two blood samples 10 days apart—can doctors determine if the flu is of the Asian variety.

"This is the time of the year for respiratory diseases (flu included), anyway." Chope commented. The county officer said people in San Mateo county are more susceptible to such diseases during the fall months.

Family Doctors

Chope suggested that parents should consult their doctors if they wish the flu vaccine, mainly because reactions to the shots, according to nationwide reports, have been "somewhat extreme."

Chope showed figures confirming that about 54 percent of the people throughout the country who have had the shots have been affected. Some suffered nothing worse than a sore arm, while others—some 7 percent—have had violent reactions.

Since the vaccine is strong, the flu serum affects individuals differently, depending on their allergies. Those who are allergic to eggs, for example, are advised not to get the shots. By consulting with a family doctor, Chope said, parents will be able to determine whether or not they and their children would do well to take the vaccine.

Casbah Robbers Identified After Belmont Shooting

Two of the three young gunmen nabbed last Thursday night in Belmont after a holdup that led to the shooting of a San Mateo policeman, were positively identified this week as the pair who fleeced the Casbah tavern of $1121 here August 22.

Inspectors John Walsh and Bruno Conci of Daly City said David Larson, 25, of San Francisco, and Joe Gonzales, 26, of South San Francisco, definitely were not the ones who staged the strongarm stint here last month.

Larson, Gonzales and Joe Verissimo, 27, of Fresno, are

Extortion Charge Jails Youth, 14

A 14-year-old Jefferson High freshman was jailed by juvenile authorities Friday after his two-year "extortion racket" was foiled by San Francisco police.

The delinquent admitted that he had been getting 25 cents a day from a former SF schoolmate, threatening the youngster if he did not pay.

Victim of the plot, also 14, said he was first subjected to the "pay or else" policy in 1955.

The Jefferson student said he had some of his pals "collect the payments" when he moved to Daly City.

Supervisors Get 'Retribution' Against Jury

it would be cheaper to let the state handle fire protection in the rapidly dwindling unincorporated areas.

There also appeared to be some conflict between Werder's request for more county firemen and the dwindling territory covered by county firemen.

The matter will be further reviewed at one of the two grand jury sessions scheduled for next week. The jurors will meet on Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Meanwhile, county supervisors, meeting at full strength Tuesday with the return of Thomas Callan of Colma from his extended vacation, raised eyebrows at the grand jurors' request for a transfer of grand jury funds.

The jury explained that they had authorized expenditures of $7850 from a fund that contained only $7500.

The jury said the extra $350 was spent to pay for an audit of the highway commission's books.

In order to correct the situation, the jury asked the supervisors to approve transfer of $750 from its travel expense fund to its main fund for hiring expert investigators and auditors.

Supervisors, still smarting from their accusations by the grand jury, said they would have to consider the transfer with care. They referred the jury's request to Deputy District Attorney Lyle Edson, asking him to report on it next Monday.

Callan declared, "This is exactly the kind of thing the grand jury turned up in the highway commissioner's office. Personally I will vote against it. They get money for one thing and spend it for another. It isn't right."

Callan was not present to answer any charges when the grand jury inquiry began nearly two months ago. He was not available for comment at his home yesterday, his phone having been disconnected at his request.

A colorful and combustible character on the board, Callan is expected to have plenty to say in answer to grand jurors' accusations, if he is able to make an appearance in court next week.

Callan announced earlier that he intended to travel east for the World Series and might not be back in time for the court hearing.

and improvements.

Several SF school board members and city supervisors have suggested that the Jefferson district settle for seven acres of Daly City property. The SF spokesmen have challenged the need for 10 acres for the school, citing that land is exceptionally expensive.

Weibel and Shapiro have countered that it costs the district less to buy land than to double-deck schools or include "inside" playground facilities in their school plants.

San Francisco schools, independent of state aid and state requirements for school sites, can afford to build gymnasiums and inside playground facilities. The JESD, however, figures it is less costly to expand site acreage and obtain the "educationally sound" playground space. Being on state aid and "certainly not as rich by taxes as their SF neighbors," the Daly City school administrators have no other choice, they believe.

Top Brass To Mull Westlake Traffic Protest

Westlake Improvement Association's showdown meet for traffic control at the Westmoor and Westridge intersections on Skyline is expected to draw more than 250 people next Monday night.

The session begins at 8 o'clock at WIA headquarters, 95 South Mayfair avenue.

Ed Murphy, traffic committee chairman, said state, county and municipal dignitaries have been invited. The WIA committee is made up of representatives of almost every civic and social group in Westlake.

Most of Monday's audience will consist of people from the Palisades, where the Skyline traffic problem is extreme.

A previous plea for traffic control at the two intersections was turned down by the state division of highways. They said accidents reported there were not high enough in number to warrant traffic signals or other means of control.

Guest speaker will be Dr. Julio Bortolazzo, president of the College of San Mateo. He will speak for a "yes" landslide at the polls on the junior college bond issue.

Richard Hansen, San Mateo policeman, reportedly was shot by Verissimo when the officer halted the fleeing trio in Belmont. Hansen is reported recovering "miraculously" after critical surgery. Bullets pierced his lung and thigh.

All three of the thugs face arraignment this week on charges of intent to commit murder, armed robbery, and possession of narcotics.

In their raid on the Casbah, 6192 Mission street, Larson and Gonzales held two bartenders and seven patrons at gunpoint. Bartender James McGuire was slugged on the head when he tried to take the gun away from one of the intruders.

Lay Off Problem

Lester Bastedo, representing the police group, recommended that in event employees had to be laid off, the temporary personnel would be dropped before laying off any permanent employees.

Personnel board observed, however, that this might result in laying off all persons in one particular department, such as public works, and could seriously hamper the operation of the city.

The personnel board took no action on the requests and will consider them at their meeting Tuesday night.

Bastedo appeared for the police association, Schrock for the firemen, while Joseph Intaschi and Barbara Galindo, president and vice president, respectively, represented the employees union. Dan Scannel, regionel director the the employees union, also appeared on behalf of the city workers.

LAW IN ACTION

PUNISHMENT

Primitive people look on wrongdoers as objects of revenge—"an eye for an eye."

Gilbert and Sullivan put it more gently in the "Mikado":

"My object all sublime
I shall achieve in time—
To let the punishment
Fit the crime."

Each time our lawmakers meet we have public debate as to the aims of our penal policies.

In 1944 California set up her penal system in a new Department of Corrections which today has an Adult Authority, a Youth Authority for minors, and the Trustees of the California Institution for Women.

Today instead of trying to make the punishment fit the crime, we try to make "punishment" fit the individual's needs in making a come-back —if he can, in reforming himself. Yet we seek to protect others from the criminal.

For this purpose our courts may use psychologists, social workers, and probation officers, upon whose recommendation our judges may sentence or give probation to suit individual needs.

"Indeterminate sentences" allow an authority within the Department of Corrections to prescribe the punishment, in which to rehabilitate as well as to punish.

These authorities for adults and young people study an offender's record and psychological problems, they seek the causes of his crime, recommend training, and keep records of his conduct after sentence. California stresses education, vocational training, and chances for constructive work.

Where a youngster goes wrong, police look into his attitude, the seriousness of his offense, and conditions needing correction. Besides confinement, many are released with admonitions, or accept supervision by police or social agencies.

Note: California lawyers offer this column for you to know about our laws.

THOUGHT FOR NEWSPAPER WEEK

NEWSPAPER WEEK AND THE WEEKLY

This is National Newspaper Week, so bear with us if we take time out for a little self-praise.

The American newspaper occupies a unique place in the world. Its freedom to print is guaranteed by the Constitution and is an essential instrument in the lives of the American people.

But the weekly newspaper plays an even more important part in the life of the individual, family and community.

The weekly newspaper, contrasted from the aloof daily newspapers, reflects activities of your friends, children, business acquaintances and your local governments.

Nowhere else—absolutely nowhere—can a citizen of a medium-sized city obtain this particular type information except from the hometown weekly newspaper.

As a small weekly publication in Yerington, Nev., phrases it in an emblem across its masthead, "The only newspaper in the world that gives a damn about Yerington."

And that sums it up pretty well for most weekly newspapers.

Your hometown paper can't give you the goings on in far off Afghanistan. If you want to read about the far corners of the earth, you know where you can go to get this information.

But for news of your friends and community, Daly City is to the daily newspapers as Afghanistan is to us. You're about as likely to find complete coverage of Daly City in a huge metropolitan paper as you are to find news of the Instanbul Athletic club in THE RECORD.

Readers can be selective in their reading habits, and that makes for competition and varying expression of ideas. That's what helps make American newspapers strong and independent.

But each individual's sphere of interest is lessened somewhat as happenings appear further and further away from home.

News, for us, starts with the individual, the family, the clubs, organizations, schools, city and county government.

We know we can't go wrong with those ingredients.

Colma Intermediate Students Make Newcomers 'Feel At Home'

New students to Colma Intermediate school found their initial problems in getting acquainted considerably simplified for them by the Colma School Service Group.

In order to have a smooth working organization functioning on the first day of school, Judy Logan, commissioner of student welfare, called a meeting of last year's members the Friday before school opened, to brief them on their duties. When classes began the following Tuesday, the committee had set up information booths to assist the newcomers.

In emphasizing that a major purpose of the organization is to train its individual members in citizenship and leadership through administering positions of responsibility, Lloyd Andrews, vice principal of the 7th and 8th grade school, noted: "Our school is a community within a larger community. In training these students in positions of leadership and responsibility, we are training future community leaders."

Bolstered by more than 25 veterans from last year, the group boasts of approximately 125 members from the seventh and eighth grades. Charles White serves as the faculty sponsor of the organization.

Navy Opens Gates For Future Brass In ROTC Exams Dec. 14

Vice Admiral James A. Holloway, Jr., Chief of Naval Personnel, announces that the 12th annual national competitive examinations for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps will be given to interested high school seniors and graduates on December 14. Application forms are now available and must be received before November 16. he added.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a commission while studying at the civilian college of his choice which has an NROTC unit. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy, and the student receives an annual retainer of $600 for four years. During the summers the student goes on fascinating training cruises as a midshipman.

After completing the usual four-year college course, he is commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty with the Navy's far-flung fleets. For those who apply and qualify, immediate assignment to flight training will open new careers in naval aviation.

High school seniors and graduates between the ages of 17 and 21 may apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Those who make a qualifying score will be given a rigid physical exam early in 1958. From the pool of qualified young men remaining in competition, approximately 2000 will be selected to begin their naval careers next September.

The NROTC college training program is also open to enlisted men on active duty with the Navy and Marines. Separate quotas are established for applicants from within these services.

Application forms are available at both Jefferson and Westmoor high schools, colleges, Navy Recruiting Stations, or from the Chief of Naval Personnel, Washington 25, D.C.

DC Post Office Offers Jobs In Two Categories

Patrons of the Daly City post office now have a chance to enter the postal service, Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy said today. Persons appointed as substitute clerks and carriers will be able to participate in the many advantages of federal employment.

Post office work offers an opportunity for service to the community, paid vacations, sick leave benefits, and a retirement plan, Murphy reminded. A life insurance plan covers government employees at a low rate to them with the government carrying part of the expense. Post office carriers who wear a uniform are allowed up to $100 a year to cover the cost of the uniform. In addition, a government-wide incentive awards program offers the opportunity for an individual employee to achieve personal distinction and financial reward for suggestions to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the service.

Starting pay is $1.82 an hour with steady increases provided. No experience is required. Veterans are given preference in appointment.

To speed up hiring, the U. S. Civil Service Commission has arranged for more frequent written tests. Full information together with application forms may be obtained from Murphy at the post office.

State Solons To Probe Lewd Pics, Sexy Literature

The State Assembly Interim Committee on Judiciary today organized a Subcommittee on Pornographic Literature and Pictures, headed by Assemblyman Louis Francis of San Mateo as chairman.

The subcommittee is directed to ascertain, study and analyze all facts relating to lewd, obscene, and indecent books, magazines and pictures. It will also investigate the publication, distribution and sale of literature offensive to decency.

Several bills were introduced in the State Senate and Assembly during the 1957 general session of the State Legislature to strengthen the laws relating to lewd and obscene literature and pictures, but all failed to pass. These bills have been referred to the committee for study.

Chairman Francis said that particular attention will be devoted by the subcommittee to study and investigate the "impact of the sexy and girly magazines upon the youth in our state. The subcommittee will also thoroughly investigate the publication and sale of pornographic literature and pictures which can only be described as "morally foul, filthy and repugnant to every sense of decency," he added.

Best Hi School Seniors Eligible For Bank Awards

The more than 350 high schools in Northern California were invited today to participate again this year in the statewide Bank of America "Achievement Awards" program.

S. Clark Beise, president of the bank, said that throughout California in excess of 6000 awards in cash, trophies, certificates and ribbons will be presented next spring to outstanding high school seniors.

Nearly 450 winners will receive cash and 20 will gain top awards of $1000 each.

Purpose is to honor scholastic achievement and citizenship and promise of service to society.

Inaugurated 10 years ago, the program in 1957-58 will offer $54,900 in cash. The total is up $10,000 over 1956-57 to allow for formation of a new division required by sharply increased Southern California high school enrollment.

Approximately 130 schools in the nine-county San Francisco Bay Area are expected to participate and 225 schools in the Northern California Counties division. The latter extends from the Oregon border south to include Kern County but is exclusive of the Bay Area.

Cash awards for the two northern division will total $23,500. In addition, there will be nearly 750 gold trophies and 2500 certificates of achievement.

Selection of winners begins in the high schools in February. Zone competitions are scheduled in April and final judgings are held and top awards made in May at Sacramento and San Francisco.

Four major study fields are covered: science and mathematics, fine arts, liberal arts and vocational arts.

Incinerator At Super Market Will Reduce Smog

A smoke-free incinerator, specially designed to comply with strict air polution control requirements, has just been completed at the huge million dollar Quality Foods Inc. supermarket in Buri Buri, South San Francisco.

The multi-chamber incinerator is one of the first of its type to be installed in the Bay Area, and sets the pattern for voluntary compliance on the part of commercial and industrial firms with rules and regulations which the Bay Area Air Pollution Control district is expected to establish for the reduction of smog nuisance.

The Buri Buri market will be QFI's first store located outside San Francisco. The large independent chain organization operates five supermarkets in San Francisco. Formal opening of the new store is scheduled for November 21, according to President John Musso.

A revision of plans, to provide smoke-free incineration at the new market, was ordered by Musso several months ago when the 35,000 square foot structure was in the planning stage.

Benjamin Linsky, air pollution control officer, praised QFI officials for their cooperative action, adding that the Bay Area smog problem may be aided by this type of voluntary regulation.

The ultra modern market, located at El Camino Real in the Buri Buri district, was designed by Ralph Berger, A.I.A., of San Francisco. It will feature many innovations for modern merchandising and shopping ease, including self-service meats, pre-packaged and pre-weighed produce from rear-loaded cases, ten "Speedie" check out stands; 300 feet of refrigerated open top beverage, dairy and produce cases; parking area for 300 cars, non-slip terrazzo floors and attractively colored concrete sidewalks; "Magic" automatically operated doors, automatic overhead sprinkler system for fire protection and piped-in music system.

Letters To The Editor

Brisbane Resident Scores Homeowners: 'Lack Of A Quorum'

Dear Editor:

What has happened to our Brisbane Home Owners Association? It seems that our greatest problem now is to get a quorum. What happened to all these people (individual members of the PTA) that joined our organization to elect these officers? They should be made to attend the meetings and listen to them.

When I formed this organization, it was formed for the purpose of discussing Brisbane problems, not to be used as a sewing circle.

This is the second month in a row the president hasn't even attended. Now our greatest problem seems to be to get a quorum so we can lower the quorum. This is the second time in a row that we did not have a meeting.

Miss Mercer was treated at Junipero Serra hospital.

Congressman On Scene In Brisbane As Kids Campaign

Congressman J. Arthur Younger paid a visit to students at Natalie Lipman school in Brisbane last Thursday, and arrived in time to see the youngsters in the midst of their own "political" campaign.

During Younger's visit the students were busy campaigning for student body offices.

The congressman spoke to the students, then held a question and answer period.

Two days following Younger's visit, the students elected the following school officers: Larry Burke, president; Jo Ann Long, secretary. A tie between Ricky Gwin and Noel Narlock will necessitate a run-off for the vice presidency.

Jean Sandoval, student council advisor, was in charge of the election board which supervised the voting.

CITY PREPARES FOR WEEK ON FIRE PREVENTION

With the tragedy that claimed the lives of a Westlake couple only a few weeks away, The Daly City fire department today gave a few rules to follow in event of a house fire.

The suggestions were made in advance of Fire Prevention Week, which will be observed here October 6 to 12.

According to Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, the first thing to do in event you believe a fire is starting is to "get out of the house and get everyone else out at the same time.

"Everyone should memorize this and other life safety rules about fire, because they're your best guarantee of surviving a fire in your home."

Kennedy also recommended these other rules to remember if fire should strike:

Be ready with different escape routes from any room in your house.

Feel a door before opening; if hot, block it with furniture and seal with wet towels and blankets; try to get out another way.

Never jump from upper-story windows except as last resort; wait for firemen.

Hold your breath if you have to dash through smoke and flames; and remember the air is usually better near the floor in a smoke-filled room.

Once out, don't ever go back into a burning building—smoke and gases from even the smallest fire can be deadly; children very often go back into their homes, so keep them restrained.

Get medical treatment at once if you are burned or exposed to smoke; seemingly minor burns or smoke inhalation can be exceedingly dangerous.

Call the fire department the instant you're certain that everyone is safely away from the fire—and leave the fire fighting to trained firefighters.

All Polio Shots Now By Family Physicians

County residents needing any or all of their polio immunization injections should make arrangements with their family physicians, according to Dr. H. D. Chope, director of the San Mateo County Department of Public Health and Welfare.

Demos Name Murphy To Central Committee

'PUNK' IS SUBDUED

Vodka-Beer Mixture A Bit Rough On Cops

A belligerent San Francisco teen-ager, fortified with a mixture of beer and vodka, led Broadmoor and Daly City police an hour-long chase Saturday night and had to be subdued with force and handcuffed.

The 17-year-old youth was taken into custody along with two acquaintances, another 17-year-old San Franciscan and a Daly City boy, 16.

After the late-hour melee was over, the obstreperous youth found himself charged with six counts: assault and battery, resisting arrest, violation of probation, curfew violation, possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

Broadmoor officer Ronald Sinclair was summoned to the 100 block of Second avenue in Colma about 11 p.m., after a resident reported a juvenile disturbance in the back yard of a home on that street.

They Scatter

When Sinclair arrived at the scene the three youths took off in different directions. Returning to his patrol car, Sinclair spotted one youth and attempted to apprehend him.

Just as he was escorting the boy to the police car, the slightly drunk youngster broke loose and ran over the top of hothouses between Second and Third avenue. The glass was not enough to support his weight and the frantic youth fell through to the floor of one of the hothouses, miraculously escaping injury.

Sinclair called for aid from Daly City and Sgt. Dave Hansen and Officers Al Nicolini and George Brooks responded.

The boy fought back savagely, swung on the officers and connected with a roundhouse blow to the chin of Sinclair.

After subduing the youth, officers booked him and he was sent to Hillcrest juvenile home to await action by San Francisco probation authorities.

No Struggle

Returning to Market street, where the first boy admitted parking his car, the officers found the two other teen-agers, who put up no struggle.

They were booked at Hillcrest and released to custody of their parents.

Although burglary was first believed to be the juveniles objective, the boys told police that they had been attempting to crash a party on Third avenue.

For some reason unknown to local authorities, the pugilistic San Francisco youth was living alone in the YMCA in San Francisco, although he is on probation from previous arrests for burglary and as a habitual runaway. Normally in such cases a youth must be living with his parents or an acceptable guardian, according to Broadmoor Chief Ray Savage.

Mrs. Storman has asked the teen-agers of the Mercian club to assist the women in the serving and acting as hostesses.

There will be surprises from the entertainment group for children and valuable door prizes for adults. Vincent O'Connor and William Tognetti head the floor committee. Other committee heads include treasurer, George Slevin, refreshments, Lloyd Madigan, and entertainment, George Hemmerle.

CANON BYFIELD SAYS 'SPIRITUAL INFANCY' HERE

Comparing problems and attitudes of early Christians with those of the present day, the Rev. Canon Richard Byfield, Christian education and promotion director, Episcopal Diocese of California, and "Pacific Churchman" magazine editor, spoke Sunday at St. Martin's Episcopal Church on the relative importance given religious and secular activities in modern life.

Taking as his text the verse by St. Paul in the First Epistle to the Corinthians, "I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it," Canon Byfield remarked that even today, after many centuries of Christianity, most people are still in spiritual infancy, unwilling to bear the responsibilities of their faith.

Music for the 11 a.m. morning prayer service in Westlake Auditorium, at which Canon Byfield was guest preacher, was provided by Richard Verney, organist, and the adult choir. George McKay served as lay reader of the Psalm and Scriptures. Due to the illness of the Rev. Allen J. Downey, vicar, services this Sunday will again be conducted by a guest minister.

Spontaneous games of football for boys and dodge-ball for girls were organized, giving children, teachers, and parents a chance to have fun together and become better acquainted.

Religious instruction as well as fellowship is offered to persons of all ages, from infancy to adulthood, by the church school, headed by the Rev. Allen J. Downey, vicar, Mrs. John E. Ellis, superintendent, and a faculty of 16 members. During construction of the new church building at Southgate avenue and Bradley drive, services are held at Westlake Auditorium, 333 Park Plaza drive. Cop Cars Really Get The Acid Test

The mortality rate on new patrol cars is pretty rough, Broadmoor police department will hesitatingly admit.

Saturday the Colma fire department rushed post haste to Broadmoor police station to put out a blaze in the motor of Broadmoor's brand new police vehicle.

Chief Ray Savage said a wire from the battery to the radio shorted out, causing plenty of smoke but little fire. Damage was negligible.

Such incidents are not new to Broadmoor gendarmes.

Less than a month ago, on September 7, the police department's other spanking new vehicle was rammed by a motorist who was later charged with drunk driving. Damage to the vehicle was in excess of $300.

Broadmoor really puts its vehicles to the acid test.

THE BIG GAME

By Carol Baker

You don't have to be a white hunter or join a Safari to know that the "big game" is here and now. Pull up to any college campus and you will hear the stomp and beat of the drums, the calls and yells of the cheering brigade, getting in trim for the big fight ahead! When the red and the white, or the orange and the blue attack their enemy in the Big Game—

And if you are older you'll be bombarded with letters inviting you to all the reunions set up for the coming battle in the field. Even conservative Dad will remember with longing, his conquests in the stadium, and will look forward with bright eyes and a stout heart, toward the day when a world is turned loose—when the shouts and the roars of the pigskin enthusiasts will be heard from coast to coast over TV and radio networks.

Well everybody's doing it—getting ready for the game, for the big play in the field. And getting ready for that supper barbecue to celebrate the sweet taste of victory after the game. And if you're over 21, be sure to enjoy Four Roses Whiskey at your Big Game Barbecue. Four Roses will guarantee you satisfaction and pleasure throughout your coming year.

A course in how to drive an automobile intelligently and safely is being offered again this year to night school students of Jefferson High School district.

Driver training classes, in which adult education students will receive a minimum of six hours of actual behind-the-wheel driving instruction, are made possible by the loan to the school of a new Ford by Neville Ford. DIPLOMAS, TOO

Folks Still May Sign For Jeff Adult School

The new approach to adult education introduced last year in the Jefferson Adult School makes it possible for acceptance of students almost anytime during the semester, Director John Ivan said today.

Called "pace learning," the new method makes it possible for a beginner or an advanced student to register late and still obtain full benefit from the instruction at a pace suited to the needs and abilities of the student. This approach is particularly well adapted for students in shorthand and typing classes where small groups at different ability levels receive group instruction and individual attention.

The learn-to-swim class which started Wednesday night has been following this pattern of instruction for a number of years. The class is divided into groups of not more than 10 students, each group having their own instructor. When a student is ready, he is moved up to a more advanced group with a different instructor.

For the first time in its 30 years of serving the Jefferson Union High School District, the Adult School has been granted authority to give credit for night school work and grant a diploma to those who successfully meet the requirements.

Graduation from the Adult School shall be based on the satisfactory completion of not less than 150 semester units of high school work exclusive of physical education. At least 10 of the 150 units must be completed with the Jefferson district. A semester unit is calculated on the number of hours of attendance.

Eighty hours of classroom work is equivalent to five units of credit and classes are so designed, that each course yields five units of credit each semester.

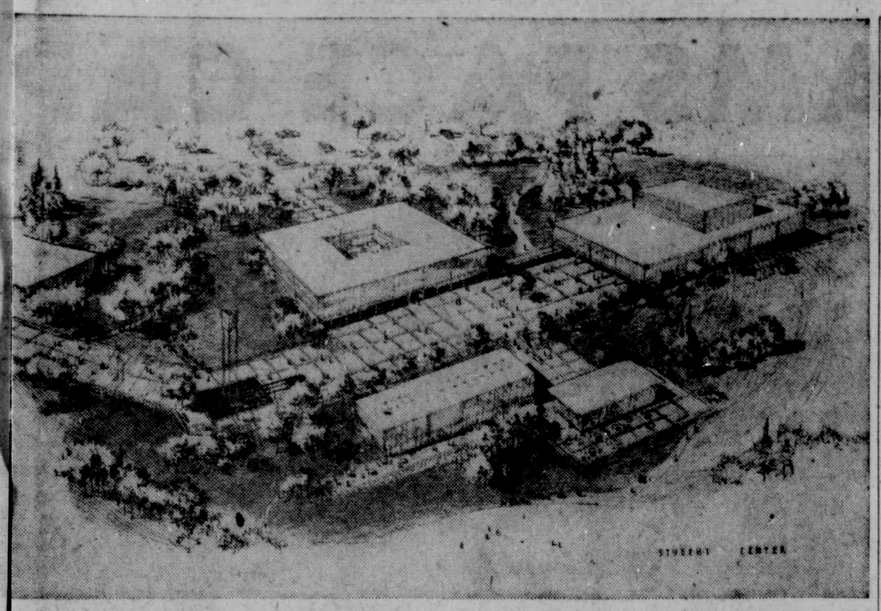
Minimum requirements for the diploma call for thirty units of English, 10 units of U. S. History, 5 units of U. S. Government, 10 units of science, 10 units of mathematics and the balance of units in electives. Those interested in completing their high school work should consult Director John Ivan before enrolling in a class.

Domenici Completes Air Force Training, Visits With Parents

George Domenici has completed his basic training with the U. S. Air Force at Lackland AFB, San Antonio, Texas, and is now spending a two week furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kell, 35 Royce way, Daly City.

Domenici, a graduate of Jefferson High school, class of '57, where he played varsity football, will be stationed at Fairchild AFB, Spokane, Wash., with the 92nd Bomber Wing of the Strategic Air Command.

More than 96 per cent of the vehicles involved in fatal accidents on United States highways in 1956 were in apparently good condition, according to the National Automobile Club.



ABOVE is artist's conception of the proposed unified centrally located College of San Mateo campus which district voters are being asked to approve at the polls on Tuesday, October 15. The $5,900,000 college bond issue not only provides for the modern educational facilities illustrated here, but also for the acquisition of the North County college site for future development. The college presently has no bonded indebtedness and this is the first time since it was founded 35 years ago that it has sought citizen voting support for a bond issue.

Bonds Would Speed Unified JC Campus

With voting less than three weeks away, the vitally important $5,900,000 College of San Mateo bond issue continued this week to gain wide public support.

During the past month, civic organizations, community leaders, PTA associations, labor unions, veteran groups, chambers of commerce, public officials and thousands of local citizens have joined together in a massive voluntary campaign effort to obtain an overwhelming "yes" vote for the college at the polls on Tuesday, October 15.

Passage of the ballot measure will end the college's 35-year search for a permanent, unified, centrally-located campus and provide for the acquisition of a north county site for future development.

Students Suffer

At present, 80 per cent of the more than 2900 day students enrolled at the college attend classes in makeshift, flimsy structures speedily built during wartime as temporary quarters for the merchant marine academy at Coyote Point.

Kenneth Van Gunday, general chairman of the citizens' committee for the college bond measure, warned that the deteriorating buildings at Coyote Point would have been condemned as potential firetraps long ago if it hadn't been for the fact that the college's desperate need for additional classrooms forced the school's administrators to use these board and plywood structures in spite of their hazardous condition.

Regarding the educational needs of the district, Van Gundy pointed out that a majority of youngsters graduating from district high schools might be deprived of the essential benefits of college training if it were not for the tuition-free educational advantages provided by the county's only public-supported college.

Strictly For Veterans

By Grace J. Hill

Recipients of veterans benefits whose government checks seem larger than they ought to be should have only one reaction: not "Uncle Sam's loss is my gain," but "honesty is the best policy." The government will almost certainly find out about the error and claim a refund. Promptly to report any overpayment is far wiser than promptly to spend it. Refunding money you no longer have is a lot more difficult than returning it when it was never yours anyway!

Unit Activities

Brisbane Post and Unit 472, American Legion, held their "Get Together" dinner Friday evening in Brisbane Legion Hall. A large crowd attended.

The American War Mothers held their regular Ward Party at Ft. Miley hospital Thursday evening. Their regular meeting will be held Thursday evening, October 10.

Daly City Post 410, American Legion, will hold its regular meeting Thursday evening, October 10. Attendance at these meetings is strongly urged as plans are being made for the coming winter activities.

Westlake Post 535, American Legion, will hold its annual Past Commanders' Dinner on Saturday evening, October 5, at Lyle's in South San Francisco.

The past presidents of Daly City Unit 410, American Legion Auxiliary, will hold their regular meeting Wednesday evening, October 9.

The 26th District, San Mateo County, American Legion Auxiliary, is saddened by the death of Mrs. Frank Gomes of San Mateo. For many years Mrs. Gomes served the district as rehabilitation chairman. Her work with the units of the district at Palo Alto hospital has been outstanding. Much progress has been made in the entertainment and comfort of the patients through her efforts. She will truly be missed.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

To us, Helen Morgan, cafe singer and Ziegfeld star of the Terrible Twenties, was a little girl with big eyes, sitting on top of a piano, singing plaintively of the sorrows of love. We never saw her, never knowingly heard her records, nor have any real remembrance of her at all.

We have a hunch that this is how she lives on in most memories, like a vaguely defined figure in an impressionist painting. If this is how you "remember" her, there isn't any reason why you shouldn't be pleased with "The Helen Morgan Story," currently at the Paramount, starring Ann Blyth in the title role, assisted by the voice of Gogi Grant.

With this in mind and only the vaguest impression of Helen Morgan, we thought Ann Blyth an ideal choice to play the role. Gogi Grant's quavery voice fits in perfectly, and the two personalities combine to create a wistful gamin pursued by blues, boy friends and brandy.

Paul Newman plays a former carnival man, supposedly endowed with all the fascination film writers like to associate with a disreputable character. Richard Carlson is a socially secure lawyer, only superficially regretful of his marriage which stands between him and Helen.

As we watched the latter thirstily bounce back and forth between them, we realized the rainy season had started in earnest; it was positively pouring inside the Paramount.

We commented last week that things had been confused, but we didn't know how confused until we read our column in the paper. Our head is hanging in shame for the booboo we made. "The Helen Morgan Story" is a Warner Brothers production and release. We hope the W. Brothers will forgive us for jumping to the wrong conclusion. After all, it is the only exercise we get.

TV and Radio

"For centuries I've provided light for man . . . I've also been found in the frying pan . . . The part you see I no longer use . . . I'm not like you—I can't wear shoes!" What could it be? Youngsters around the Bay Area hurried to send in their guess for the mystery object on "Explorers of Tomorrow," the outstanding public service television program produced by the California Academy of Sciences in cooperation with KRON-TV (Sundays, 1 p.m.). A mystery scientific object is featured every week on this award winning series designed by the Academy to appeal especially to intermediate school students, to acquaint them with the world of science and show what fun science is.

Bringing questions from their respective classes, Suzanne Zahrt, from Reed school in Tiburon, and Ron Baker from Garden Village school appeared as student demonstrators on last week's program "The Animal Kingdom" with Science Interpreter, Dr. Robert T. Orr, University of San Francisco biologist.

Moving right along with fascinating scientific demonstrations . . . . covering a surprisingly large area of science in a half-hour show . . . the program certainly succeeds in holding youngsters interest and is highly informative as well.

We feel that such program as "Explorers of Tomorrow" is as valuable a supplement to classroom study as library and reference books. We questioned John Belforte, fifth grade instructor at Garden Village school, and he said that about half the class watched the program at home, and enjoyed it very much. He felt such educational programs could "certainly supplement and enrich an existing well planned curriculum."

Benjamin Draper, executive producer of the series, told us that they are anxious to make youngsters feel that this is their program. Also teachers are invited to send suggestions concerning the program to the public affairs department at KRON-TV. In case young viewers are still wondering about the mystery object—it was a whales' hind leg (vestigial bone now buried in the whales' flesh).

Driver Runs Over Foot Of Youth, 4

A four-year-old Daly City boy was taken to Junipero Serra hospital here Tuesday after a motorist ran over his foot as the youth was waiting to cross the street.

The driver, Robert J. Duke, 38, of 615 Niantic avenue, was not cited by police.

Housewife Arrested After Auto Mishap

An allegedly tipsy Daly City housewife was arrested this week after her attempt to drive away from a Mission street parking space resulted in damages to another car.

Police said Mrs. Ruby L. Arabe, 45, of 50 Station avenue, rammed her car into a parked vehicle owned by Genevieve Semonini of San Francisco. The impact smashed the rear headlight of the latter vehicle.

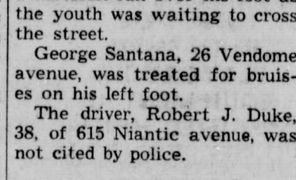
Mrs. Arabe was released on bail to appear in court next week on the charge of drunkeness.

Repetitious Vagrant Does Time In Clink

Greeting the same gent in court for the second straight week, Judge Thomas Bocci this Thursday sentenced a 36-year-old unemployed sheet-metal worker to 10 days in county jail for vagrancy.

Albert Jarranpa, 220 London street, San Francisco, was booked in Daly City Wednesday night when Sgt. Dave Hansen found him sleeping in the grass near a playground.

Last week Jarranpa paid a $25 fine on a vagrancy arrest here.



Be glad in the Lord; and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart. — (Psalm 32, 11.)

Living a righteous life, being filled with God's love and good which are ours for the seeking and accepting, is not a grim, solemn, sour experience. It is the only real and lasting happiness, something of gladness and joy that is kindly, unselfish, eagerly shared with others.

WHAT IS IT? Young visitors to KRON TV's "Explorers of Tomorrow" program try to guess the mystery object held by Dr. Robert T. Orr, University of San Francisco biologist. Suzanne Zahrt of Reed school, Tiburon, and Ron Baker of Garden Village school, son of TV columnist Mona Baker, appeared as student demonstrators on the public service program last week. Youngsters around the Bay Area are invited to identify the new mystery scientific object featured each week on the award-winning series.

DC Couple's Son Suffers Critical Injuries In Wreck

Coast Guardsman Harold Hamre, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hamre, 222 Vista Grande avenue, suffered critical injuries Saturday in an auto accident just outside of Merced, Calif.

Hamre, passenger in a vehicle returning from a Coast Guard recruiting meeting, suffered compound injuries of his left leg and possible loss of sight in his left eye when the vehicle hit a cement culvert and overturned.

Surgeons at Oak Knoll Naval hospital operated on Hamre's eye this week in an effort to save his vision. Future surgery will probably be necessary to restore sight, according to the victim's wife. Hamre will also undergo surgery for the leg fractures. He is expected to be hospitalized for one year.

Coast Guardsman Hamre and his wife are residents of Thornton, Calif., but Mrs. Hamre plans to move to the Bay Area until her husband leaves the hospital.

Dealer Ray Harris valued the batteries at $46.35. A broken window was evidence of how the thief got to his loot.

'Price' Of Imbibing Zooms Upward Here

A few drinks at a Daly City tavern cost a San Francisco woman more than what she passed to the bartender last Saturday night.

Lucotto Bratsich, 44, of 479 Prentis street, said a man about 30 sat down beside her, consumed a quick drink, then hurriedly left.

She checked her handbag and discovered that her coin purse containing $23.20 was missing.

JEFF HOSTS MATEANS; RAMS FACE CAP

S. M. Bearcats Test Ailing Tribe

Crippled by the loss of half of their offense in a costly scrimmage Tuesday, Jefferson's makeshift Indians will find themselves on the paltry end of the odds this Friday in their Peninsula League debut here against San Mateo's Bearcats. Game time is 3 o'clock.

Veteran QB Paul Tapia and scatback Sonny Martinez, both seniors, suffered injured knees as Joe McGrath's team dumped Washington of SF in a drill on Tuesday.

Tapia, on crutches Wednesday morning, is definitely out. Martinez, the squad's breakaway threat, may not be able to suit up.

Luck Of The Irish?

McGrath, facing a lean season due to lack of experienced personnel, thus has been doubly handicapped by the old injury jinx.

Moving into the key role at QB for Tapia will be junior Vic Lewkowitz, a frosh-soph graduate whose '56 labors were cut short by a broken arm. Soph John Margaroni, close to the ground and 125 pounds, steps in for Martinez at right half.

Jeff is really hurting at QB, not to take anything away from Lewkowitz, who performed well in the Washington disaster. Jerry Kennedy, 170-pound junior, was behind Tapia at QB until an injury to soph center Bill Dixon forced McGrath to move Kennedy up front last week.

Dixon Rusty

Dixon, an exceptional prospect, just returned to drills this week and he's rusty. Kennedy and Lewkowitz must play to the hilt in the opener.

Ron Molina, another Jeff halfback hopeful, was put out for the season last week via a damaged knee. He's wearing a cast clear up to here.

Tapia's fine passing arm and poise will be missed, but Lewkowitz is accurate upstairs and McGrath's ends are still healthy. Vic engineered two TD marches in the Washington mess, passing for one score to Pete Garcia, and connecting again to Barry Haanen, who latteraled to Margaroni for another tally. Little John ran an intercepted pass back for the third Jeff score.

The last-minute injuries leave McGrath with a starting squad composed of three sophs, four juniors, and seniors Bob Berry, Dwayne Cook, Neil Dunsford and Pat Lena.

Garcia, a fine junior, and Berry will start at the ends, with John Dean and soph Bob Nielson at tackles, and seniors Cook and Dunsford at guards.

Art And Pat

Soph Art Banos will be the left halfback and Lena is the charger at fullback.

San Mateo's offense is geared around hard-running Bob Devincenzi, one of the PAL's better ball toters. Like Jeff, the Mateans lack the veterans to rank among the contenders this fall.

Devincenzi and mates last week lost a tuneup tilt to Sequoia of the South PAL, 14-7. The Bearcats and Jeff would have been about even if Tuesday's developments hadn't sliced McGrath's forces.

Jeff's scheduled game with Encinal of Alameda here last Friday was washed out by showers. The Washington affair, however, did more damage to McGrath's crew than potent Encinal ever could have inflicted.

Brisbane Bowlers Back In Championship Form

Defending champ Brisbane Market dynamited Vince & Fred Tuesday night to roll to the top of the Daly City-Colma Bowling League.

J. Bell Sr. captured twin honors as the Brisbaners scored a shutout. Bell had the evening's high singles, a 222 first game, and high series, 626. D. Girton and Wild Bill Strassburger were on his heels.

Val's Redwoods and Globe Tavern broke even, lowering the Valmen to second place, a half a game out.

The 101 Club and Lou Amrofell moved up a notch with sweeps over Edisco and Prudential, respectively.

Split-decision victors were United Meats over Jack's Inn, Carmona Chemical over Giannini Market, DC Cleaners over Joe's Nursery, and Don's Standard Service over Thur Meats.

Key games next week match Brisbane and Edisco, Val's and Joe's, Carmona and Thur, and Amrofell and United.

Palmer, McGraw Pace Chamber's Silverado Golf

Glenn Palmer and Elton McGraw hogged honors last week in the Chamber of Commerce's fall blind bogey golf tourney at Silverado Country Club.

Palmer shot a 74 (with a 4 handicap) for the low gross trophy. McGraw's 69 was best for low net. He stroked an 89 with a 20 handicap.

Palmer and Joe Sarto Jr. tied for second low net, and B. Dryer was third in the same category.

Thirty-six men braved the bus trip and inclement weather to participate, according to Pete Markovich, secretary-manager of the chamber.

Santa Clara Tests SFS Water Poloists

San Francisco State's water polo team goes after their second victory this Friday at 4:30 p.m. when they meet Santa Clara in the Gator swimming pool.

In their 1956 meets, the San Franciscans defeated Santa Clara twice, by identical scores, 18-11.

Jeff 20's Cagers Nurse Title Hopes In PAL Campaign

Coach Mike Orlich sent his Jefferson lightweight basketball teams into opening PAL combat this Thursday with that championship gleam in his eyes.

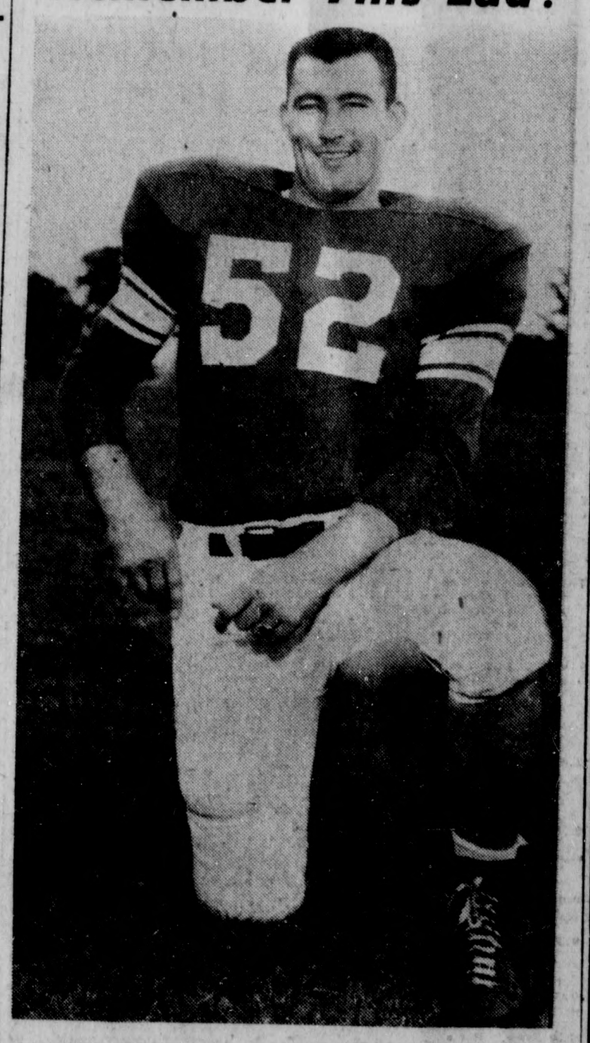
The Indian 10's and 20's entertained Westmoor in the cork popper. Results were not known at press time.

Off practice tilts, Orlich thinks his 20's will be among the contenders. The 10's, despite the loss of Joe Vaez to the 20's, also bear watching.

The Tribe 20's rocked Sacred Heart, 33-17, last week, and Poly, 35-31, last Tuesday. The 10's lost to the Irish, 28-22, and to the Parrots, 26-25.

A height requirement forced Orlich to move Vaez up to the 20's. Joe was a bit over the maximum altitude for 10's.

Remember This Lad?



PENINSULA football fans attending the Cal-Michigan State game Saturday in Berkeley will see a familiar face on the Big Ten team's roster. He's Daly City's Jack Thur, former All-Peninsula and All-Northern California player for Joe McGrath at Jefferson High. A sophomore at MSC, Jack is 21, 6 even, and 210 pounds. He's listed as third string center for the Spartans. All Jack has to do to win the starting assignment is to beat out senior Dan Currie, an All-America selection in '56.

W'moor 11 Gets By WG In 6-0 Tilt

By Roy Hurlbert

Sluggish in victory last week, Westmoor's Rams can't afford to repeat their mistakes this Friday if they hope to shock the Peninsula with an upset win over juggernaught Capuchino at San Bruno.

The 3 o'clock kickoff will find the Daly City eleven in a "guinea pig" role. Cap, swelled by the biggest propaganda campaign in years, is supposed to tear up all opposition this fall.

Fact Or Fancy?

Some of the self-styled experts are ready to hand Northern California "team of the year" honors to Capuchino—even before the first whistle sounds.

Coach Paul Baldwin, the man in charge of the San Bruno monsters, doesn't like the "best ever" label. In fact, he doubts his '57 edition will live up to its clippings. Good psychology, maybe.

Westmoor's Pete Matisi hasn't conceded that Cap will run his lads out of the stadium. True, Baldwin has three All-league returnees and depth. But Westmoor's defensive line is hefty enough to assert itself to the extreme. If the Ram forwards and backs can get an offensive jump on their hosts, the San Brunans may have their hands full.

Three Standouts

Westmoor outplayed mediocre Willow Glen something awful last week, but managed to nail the triumph by only 6-0. Matisi's offensive line took a holiday, he thought. The defense won the ball game, blocking two punts and snaring two WG passes at critical moments.

Matisi's big tackles had much trouble moving WG's lighter forwards, thus QB Dave Simons couldn't get much yardage through the gates with halves Larry Schoenfeldt and Leo Wyrick, and fullback Larry Harper.

The Clincher

A blocked punt early in the third quarter established Westmoor's lone fruitful TD drive. Seven plays later, Schoenfeldt got the six points from the two.

Twice more in the second half the Rams chugged goalward, thanks to Simon's air shots to Sid Swanson, and improved hauls by Wyrick and Schoenfeldt. Both thrusts died as the Rams surrendered the ball on downs—inside the 20-yard line.

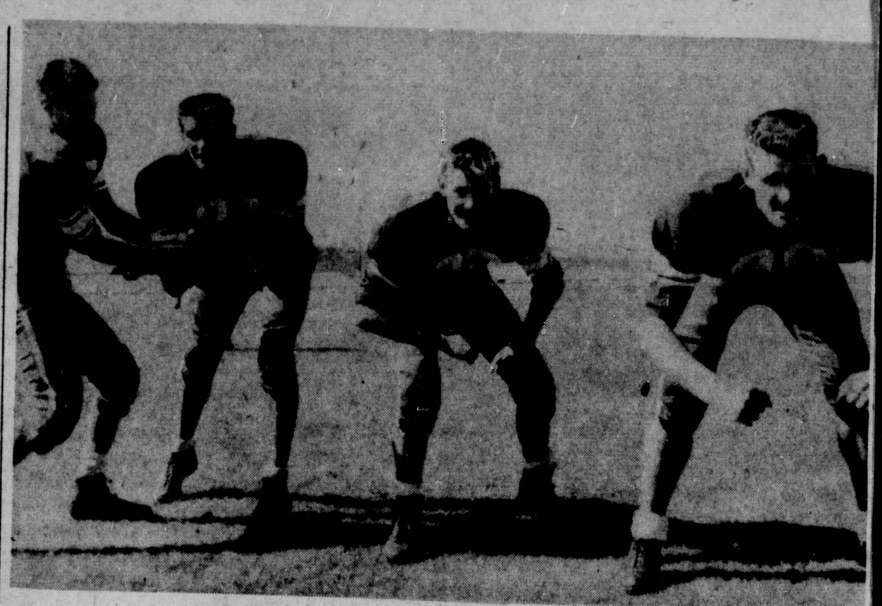
Right guard Paul Giomi, a junior with exceptional finesse, missed the game because of illness. Matisi could have used him, but reserve Steve Robinson played well. The head man liked the yeoman job turned in by linebacking halfback John White.

Same Faces

Except for Giomi's return this Friday, Matisi's lineup will be the same.

He intends to alternate White and Rich Hottal at halfbacks behind Wyrick and Schoenfeldt.

Capuchino is over anxious. The Mustangs got rained out of their scheduled opener last week against Berkeley. It's possible Baldwin's hordes may suffer first-game jitters. Westmoor, with one game behind them, won't exactly be as cool as a cucumber, though. Meeting the "king" at his palace isn't good for the ulcers.



WESTMOOR High's backfield starters are triggered for an all-out effort this Friday afternoon against rugged Capuchino in San Bruno. The Ram toters, left to right: QB Dave Simons, FB Larry Harper, RH Leo Wyrick, and LH Larry Schoenfeldt. Led by three All North PAL returnees, the Mustangs are expected to win handily. The following sites have indoor facilities available and are supervised on bad weather days: Colma school, Jefferson Elementary, Crocker school, Westlake park, and the War Memorial community center.

Sign-ups are now being taken at the playgrounds for the city-wide touch football leagues in the grades 6 through high school. The games will be played on Saturdays.

SF State Soccermen Meet CCSF, Alumni

SF State's soccer team opens its conference schedule this Friday afternoon by hosting City College of San Francisco. The first boot is at 3:30 o'clock.

This Saturday morning, 11 o'clock, the Gator shin-kickers meet the SF State Alumni.

Art Bridgman's varsity mainstays are Francisco Guerra, Ed Nevius, John Bologna, Medford Todd, Fred Quinn, Owen Goldsmith, Tony Morales, Bob Marshall and Rene Euriques.

RAMS REGISTER CROSS-COUNTRY WIN OVER CAP

Westmoor High's varsity cross-country squad opened PAL competition with a 20-35 win over Capuchino last Thursday at San Bruno. Cap's frosh-sophs downed the Ram lightweights, 23-33.

Mustang Ned Benedict set a school and course record as he captured the varsity race in 10:21.4. He trimmed Westmoor's Bruce Ryner in the last five yards. Bruce crossed in 10:22.

Finishing behind Ryner were teammates Dave Dunbar, Ed Dowdall, Phil De La Fuente, Rich Hall and Lani Bucelli.

Jack Kyle of the Ram frosh-sophs took first in the time of 11:21. Fernando Rivas, Charles Hunt, Ed Robinson and Rich Keating also scored for Westmoor.

Coach Ernie Ribera thinks his varsity could take the PAL title. He isn't too sure about his frosh-sophs.

This Thursday, the Ram squads entertained Hillsdale. San Mateo's runners invade the Westlake campus next week.

FOR BOYS 8 TO 18

Police Athletic Loop Sets Big Boxing Show

All Daly City boys, ages 8 to 18, are eligible to sign up now with the Police Athletic League for the new group's first annual boxing tournament scheduled later this month.

PAL directors, with some $650 in their budget, Wednesday night firmed plans for the big fisticuff show. The police unit, governed by a cross-section of community residents, already has the mittens for the squared circle contests.

Seek Site

John Coleman, PAL president, said he will ask the Jefferson Union High School District for permission to use one of the high school gyms for the spectacle. Another possibility is the War Memorial building.

Boys need not have any ring experience to enter the tourney. Matches will be made according to what the police think of each lad's ability. All the future champs will be under constant supervision to prevent needless injuries.

Interested lads should sign up now by going to the police department, 75 Wellington avenue, or by calling the same office, PL 5-0850.

Parents Consent

Applicants for PAL memberships will be asked to have their parents officially approve their participation by signatures. The PAL board will discuss insurance for the youngsters at their November 6 confab. The PAL charter and bylaws will be accepted at the same time.

The boxing tourney will be the first PAL activity. Also planned this year is a basketball tournament. Baseball will be the big project next spring.

The PAL is in the process of acquiring T-shirts for all the boys, stamped with the PAL emblem.

JEFF RUNNERS RIP WARRIORS IN INAUGURAL

Jefferson's varsity cross country unit nailed the first four places and an easy 16-43 victory over South San Francisco last week in their PAL lid-lifter on the Warrior course.

Don Snider grabbed the varsity jaunt in the wininng time of 11:03. Next came Al Davila, Charles Rivera and Gary Romriell.

Don Coder's Indian frosh-sophs lost, 23-34. Tony Montalvo was closest for Jeff with a fourth place finish. Also running for the Indians were King Spencer, Dave Heneise, Benfield Jensen and Don Sereni.

Coder's forces host Burlingame this week.

Victimized CSM Meets Marin JC

Blowing their opener against American River JC last week, 7-6, College of San Mateo's footballers try again this Saturday when they meet Marin JC on the San Mateo High field. The affair starts at 2 o'clock.

Seven former Daly City preps saw action for CSM in the first outing for Coach Jesse Freitas' eleven.

Joe McGrath, current Jeff grid coach, was one of the officials.

Indian, W'moor Frosh, Jayvees Play Next Week

The frosh and junior varsity grid elevens of Jefferson and Westmoor meet their first opponents next week, according to a newly revised schedule.

Bob Watt's Jeff freshmen collide with Burlingame there on Thursday, October 10. The Indian JV's face Balboa on the Buc gridiron next Monday.

Westmoor's JV's invade South City in their PAL debut Monday. Rod Losberger's Ram yearlings open up at home next Thursday against South City.

Gator Gridders Host Humboldt Huskies Tonight

San Francisco State's gridmen entertain Humboldt State this Friday night in their Far Western Conference opener on the Lake Merced campus gridiron. Kickoff is 8 o'clock.

Hizzoner Joe Verducci's Gators, 32-13 victors over San Quentin and 14-13 losers last week against San Diego State are favored. The invaders have yet to win in three non-league games this season.

Quarterback Jim Sochor, the ex-Washington High standout and Little All-America guard Floyd Peters will pace the local eleven.

SFS, Humboldt and the Cal Aggies deadlocked for the conference title a year ago.

San Mateo Cagers Two-Time W'moor As League Starts

Westmoor High's lightweight basketball teams were downed by San Mateo Tuesday as Peninsula League competition opened for 1957.

The Ram 20's, rallying strongly in the last half, lost 34-25. The Bearcat 10's prevailed, 34-13.

Behind 19-5 at the intermission, Westmoor's 20's narrowed the gap to six points as the started the fourth quarter. Rich Baker led the DC team with 8 points. Barry Krohn got 6.

Terry Christman paced the 10's with 7 points. His team fell apart after holding an 8-edge at the midway point.

Westmoor's teams, who face crosstown foe Jefferson next week at Jeff, have been handicapped by the lack of a gym. The Rams have had to practice on the outside courts, according to Tony Giammona, physical education director.
